A Skin Game.

One of the most peculiar legal decisions ever made was announced in Chicago by Justice Sabath a few days ago. The son of one Chicago citizen named Czyet assaulted the son of another Chicago citizen named Kwit with a kettle of boiling water. The assaulte lad was so severely scalded that when conveyed to hospital the medical authorities declared he would have to undergo the painful and unusual operation of skin gratting in order to live. be skinned. Justice Sabath evidently believes in the case "eye for an eye" doctrine, and after hearing the evidence in the case ordered young Czyet to furmish from his own body as much cuticle as his crime had taken from the Kwit boy on the penalty of being prosecuted in the criminal court on a charge of murder, in the event of the latter's death. The Justice gave the lad eight days in which to comply with the terms
